

How Candidate Abuse Is Costing Your Firm Millions of Dollars in Revenue

Do you remember the book "Freakonomics" from a few years ago?

It did a great job of discussing the effect that two separate events have on each other. I just came across an article that could have definitely been a part of that book that I think you will enjoy. The article discusses how the way we treat job candidates reflects on the way that we treat our customers.

Not many companies factor in the candidate experience, but they should because it is quickly becoming a "hidden cost" that is costing us millions. Click here to find out how.

Each month we feature some of the candidates our staff has identified as exceptional in what they do and potentially high impact hires at their new organizations. Click the title to learn more about these candidates.
